THE ST. REGIS MAURITIUS RESORT APPOINTS FRÉDÉRIC CHRÉTIEN AS THE NEW RESORT MANAGER

Le Morne, Mauritius, March 7, 2016 – The St. Regis Mauritius Resort is pleased to announce the appointment of Frédéric Chrétien as their new Resort Manager. Mr. Chrétien arrives to the 5-star luxury resort with a wealth of hospitality experience, particularly within Mauritius. Prior to the St. Regis he was the General Manager for The Residence – Mauritius for 14 years, as well as the General Manager for the Outrigger Mauritius Resort & Spa for two years.

Frédéric Chrétien, a French-Mauritian, has managed hotels and resorts in France, UK, the Comores Islands, and most recently Zanzibar. Although very well travelled, he always considers Mauritius as home. “Since the early days of construction, I was always fascinated with the St. Regis. Having returned to the island, I wanted to find a place where there is harmony between the concept of the brand, the architecture, and the team. It is crucial for me that this exists wherever I am, and am pleased to see that these components can all be found at The St. Regis Mauritius Resort. I look forward to working with the team to enhance our guests’ bespoke experience”, says Mr. Chrétien.

As Resort Manager, Mr. Chrétien will oversee all Operational Departments of The St. Regis Mauritius Resort. Located at the best address on the island, the St. Regis is situated in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Le Morne Peninsula. The Resort features 172 beautifully appointed rooms and suites, including the exclusive 4-bedroom St. Regis Villa. Centred around the Manor House, the resort resembles a historical estate and features five enticing restaurants and 2 bars, the Iridium Spa, ION Club Prestige – a luxury kite surfing school, and the famed hallmarks of the signature rituals of St. Regis; including Afternoon Tea, The Bloody Mary, Family Traditions and the bespoke St. Regis Butler Service.
